CALL TO WORSHIP

1 Peter 2:4-10

One: Come to him, to that living stone, rejected by men but in God's sight chosen and precious; and like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

All: For it stands in scripture: "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and he who believes in him will not be put to shame."

One: To you therefore who believe, he is precious, but for those who do not believe, "The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner," and "A stone that will make men stumble, a rock that will make them fall"; for they stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

All: But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

One: Once you were no people but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy but now you have received mercy.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, we recognize that there are forces in this world that work against you and your purposes. Some of this evil is obvious; some of it is subtle. Their messages are so strong and so accepted that we allow them to influence our views and our lifestyle. Lord, help us to remember that we are not of this world. Help us to remember that our identity is grounded in Christ and what he has accomplished for us. Help us to turn away from the lies of the world and turn to the truth of the gospel and live that out by reflecting your love, grace, and forgiveness into the lives around us.
