Gentle and Lowly Study Guide Lesson 5 Chapters 10-12

... a friend of tax collectors and sinners! Matthew 11:19

1.	What does Jonathan Edwards emphasize to children? What does this emphasis encourage? (pgs. 95-96)
2.	In your understanding of God and His attributes, how does His beauty play into that? (pgs. 96-98)
3.	What does it mean to "romance" the heart of Christ? (pg. 99)
4.	What are the implications of Jesus' permanent humanity? (pgs. 103-104)
5.	How does B. B. Warfield describe the emotional life of Jesus? (pgs. 105-111)

6.	Are Christ's compassion and anger at odds? Why or why not? (pgs. 108-109)
7.	What spurs Jesus' anger? What might he be angry with you about? (pgs. 111-112)
8.	Some sayings such as "Jesus is my home boy" or "Jesus is my buddy" may seem irreverent. How do you consider Jesus as a friend? What in your life experience informs your answer? (pg. 113)
9.	In what ways is Jesus Christ the perfect friend, a better friend than any human ever could be? (pgs. 115-120)
10.	What does it mean that Jesus is your companion? (pgs. 117-118)