

Gentle and Lowly Study Guide

Lesson 10

He loved them to the end. John 13:1

1. In regard to Christ's love, do you feel like he loved you at the point of your conversion but has decreased as you move through life, failing him time and again? Is your thinking accurate? (pgs. 197-98)
2. Put John 13:1 into your own words. What is John telling us about who Jesus is? (pgs. 198-199)
3. Have you considered deeply what happened at the cross of Christ? Explain in your own words what Jesus bore on the cross (pgs. 199-202)
4. What is John Bunyan saying in the quote on pages 202-203? What does Bunyan's statement mean for your own everyday existence?
5. What will those who are not "his own" experience from Jesus Christ? But how is that fate reversed for those who are "his own?" (pgs. 203-204)

6. What are some ways in which we glorify God? What is one way we glorify God, according to Jonathan Edwards? (pgs. 205-206)

7. In another place Edwards sets God's "majesty and greatness" alongside his "gentleness and sweetness." What is Edward's point? (pgs. 207-208)

8. What, according to Ephesians 2:7, is the point of heaven? Is this how you think of what we will be enjoying for all eternity? (pgs. 208-209)

9. Ponder what words such as "immeasurable" and "riches" and "kindness" mean in Ephesians 2:7. What are some fears or anxieties in your life right now that do not loom as large in light of these eternal realities just around the corner for those of us in Christ? (pgs. 210-211)

10. What does this chapter and its reflection on Ephesians 2:7 mean for you for the rest of this year? What worries you right now, which you can be freed into entrusting to God, mindful of the eternity inevitably awaiting you? (pgs. 211-213)
